NCM AMBASSADOR

- Jerry Schlatter reported that Corvette Assembly Plant in Bowling Green, Kentucky would be open and operating Tuesday through Friday, September 1-4. Tours will run continuously during their Labor Day celebration.
- Jerry also mentioned Precision Autosports. They offer complete custom fabrication services as well as custom fabricating turbo kits from the header to the down pipe, roll cages, air to air and air to water intercoolers. Precision Autosports is located at 830 Space Drive, Beavercreek OH. Their website is www.precision-autosports.com and phone number is (937) 320-5959.

WEBMASTER

- There was no report from Bruce Richenbach.

OLD BUSINESS

- Freddie Haugh received a request from Nancy at Mid-America for a list of club members who are planning to attend the Funfest in Effingham, Illinois. Nancy told Freddie the club will park together and needs a list of participants. Among other activities, there will be a silent auction and fireworks between the Survivor and the Jan and Dean shows
- Judy Smith thanked the club for their donation for school supplies for Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. She also thanked Don and Sharon Pennell, Dave and Sharon First, and Bob and Carol Miller for additional donations. The shipment cost $65.00 and Tommy Cummings of Pine Ridge was very appreciative.

NEW BUSINESS

- Boris Tirpack mentioned that he and Retha and Larry and Terri Kopa attended the National Council Corvette Club's (NCCC) annual convention in Colorado Springs, Colorado. There were a lot of activities during the week as well as personal side trips. Next year's convention will be in West Palm Beach, Florida and the 2011 convention will be in Chicago, Illinois.

To Whom It May Concern:

We at Lakota Dialysis-NANT Chapter would like to extend our sincere appreciation for your donations and efforts on our behalf. The local schools also extend their gratitude. I'm certain that the school supplies donated will be put to good use this year. Without generous benefactors such as yourselves, some students may have fallen behind or not have had the motivation to succeed, so again, Thank you so very much!

Respectfully,

Tommy L. Cummings, CCHT-Lakota Dialysis President
