WEBMASTER

- Don Pennell asked Bruce Rickenbach if someone else could post information to the GDCC website. The answer was no. This opened up other issues about the website. They are:
  - Some members are having trouble logging on to the site and the “members only” section. Members having trouble should send Bruce an e-mail to GDCC@MEINET.COM.
  - Can the “members only” section be eliminated? Bruce indicated that if this is what members want, it can’t be done overnight.
  - Can anyone send pictures for posting? Should pictures be posted on the public site or “members only” site? Should pictures of parties such as the Christmas party or others at a private residence be posted on the public site? Whose responsibility is it to approve what pictures are posted?
  - Events such as the fundraiser at City Barbecue and the Kettering at Home parade should be posted for outsiders to know what we are involved with.
- Bruce stated that the website is updated weekly. He also indicated that the “members only” section posts the GDCC constitution, by-laws, and newsletters.
- Ken Huff suggested that Bruce show the capabilities of the website at a future meeting. Bruce said that he can do this but would need wireless access.
- Judy Smith motioned that the issue with posting pictures on the website be tabled until the December meeting. This is an issue that we as a club should think through. Don Pennell seconded the motion. Motion carried.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT

- Freddie received a thank you from Larry Kopa for the flowers. Larry also thanked club members for the cards and flowers he received.

OLD BUSINESS

- Rusty Myers had two club photographs available for review from the photo shoot at Carillon Park as well as a price list. The photos were only sent electronically to members at the photo shoot. Let Rusty know via e-mail which photo you would like.

NEW BUSINESS

- Don Pennell talked about the Wounded Warrior effort by the National Corvette Museum. Donations to sponsor a wounded warrior are $50. The museum will be hosting 110 members from Ft. Knox and their families. Each military person will be given a $25 gift certificate to the Museum Corvette store. Fort Campbell has been invited but they have not responded with the number of people. Walter Reed Army will participate March 29 and 30. Don motioned that GDCC sponsor 8 personnel. Seconded by Mark Shank. Motioned carried. Don will check with the Museum to find out if the club can sponsor 4 from Ft. Campbell and 4 from Walter Reed.
- Freddie read the duties of the president, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary's positions. New officers will become effective in January. She stated that Marsha Woolery wants to remain as the social person and Jerry Schlatter wants to remain as the National Corvette Museum ambassador. Freddie then opened the floor for club officer nominations. The following persons were nominated:

President: Michelle Bauer
Freddie Haugh
Ken Huff

Vice-President: Dave First

Secretary: Terri Kopa

Treasurer: Herb Smith

Ballots will be e-mailed. They can be returned via e-mail, mailed to GDCC, or bringing to the December meeting.
