PRESIDENT'S REPORT

- Freddie thanked all who participated (there were sixteen Corvettes) in the Kettering Holiday at Home Parade. She also thanked Tom and Doris Murph for hosting the get together after the parade.
- She thanked Ron and Michele Bauer for arranging the dinner at Sweeny's on September 11.
- Freddie received thank you cards from Larry and Terri Kopa for the donation to Hospice in her mother's name and from Pat Frymyer for the flowers.
- Freddie received a certificate from the Fisher House for the $420.00 donation made from the cruise-in at City Barbecue.
- Marsha Woolery was asked to assume the duties as social chairperson. Marsha has agreed.

OLD BUSINESS

- Mark Shank said that he will send out an e-mail with the date, time, and location of the GDCC photo shoot. Although a definite date has not been selected, it could occur as early as October 2. Russ Hodge is checking with Carillon Park personnel to see if the garage area would accommodate approximately 20 cars. Mark is checking for a site at the National Air Force Museum.
- Ken Huff reported that McDorman Chevrolet will auction 150 cars on November 5 and 6. You must register in advance if you plan to attend.

NEW BUSINESS

- Freddie has received three requests for our Club to provide Corvettes to be used in homecoming parades. In some instances, two people will ride in the cars. A motion was made that unless a child or grandchild attended a particular school where a homecoming was occurring, the Club would not participate if requested. Motion carried.

50/50 Drawing won by Judy Smith: $33.00. Judy donated the money to the fund for Dave. Thank you Judy.

Meeting Adjourned

Respectively submitted,
Theresa Kopa
